

Cycling Holiday in Tuscany: Val D'Orcia white roads short break

5 days, € 625

Introduction

This short, self-guided cycling holiday in Tuscany is designed to help you experience the Val d'Orcia at a relaxed pace, combining scenic white roads, rolling hills and historic villages in just a few days. Based in the heart of this UNESCO-listed region, the tour is ideal for travellers looking for a compact yet immersive cycling break. Carefully designed by local cycling experts, this itinerary balances enjoyable daily rides with time to explore, taste local cuisine and enjoy the iconic Tuscan landscape. With luggage transfers, handpicked accommodations and full logistic support included, you can focus on riding and discovering Val d'Orcia at your own rhythm.

The Tuscan landscape of the Val d'Orcia will warm your heart like a classic photograph on this cycling holiday in Tuscany, as you ride through waves of undulating green hills seemingly captured in time. Picturesque farmhouses lie nestled among olive groves and vineyards, while walnut and fig trees line the quiet country roads.

Pedal towards the thermal spring town of Bagno Vignoni, then explore the labyrinth of streets and artisan workshops in Montepulciano. Along the way, you will discover Renaissance palaces, Romanesque churches, historic thermal baths and prestigious wineries serving the divine local red "Brunello". Climbing to enchanting hilltop towns and descending through timeless landscapes, every ride becomes a moment to savour.

Day to Day

Day 1 Arrive in Buonconvento

Upon arrival in the charming medieval town of Buonconvento, rich in history and architecture with 700-year old walls, a transfer will take you to the agriturismo (farm house) where you will stay for the next four nights. A delicious Tuscan dinner awaits you! If you have rented bikes with us, they will be waiting for you at the accommodation.

Day 2 Murlo and La Befa round tour

33 km

Ride through the beautiful, uncontaminated countryside to Murlo and immerse yourself in the dense woods as you ride by the Crevole River. Continue past steep cliffs to the sweet smell of bright yellow flowers and through an enchanting oak tree forest to La Befa. A short part of the trail is too narrow or rocky to cycle (about 300m) however the exhilarating views are more than worth the effort.

Challenge: 33 km, 584m ascent, 675m descent

Day 3 Montalcino Land of Brunello wine round trip

24 km

Pedal through vibrant fields of sunflowers past Buonconvento to the heart of the Brunello wine district. The Monte Amiata volcano lures above as the surrounding countryside transforms into endless olive groves and vineyards. Ride steeply up to the fortified city of Montalcino where you can visit its magnificent 14th century fortress and Palazzo Comunale, then return to Buonconvento along remote back roads.

Challenge: 24/42 km, 588/1177m salita, 588/1177m discesa

Day 4 Pienza to Buonconvento via Lucignano d'asso

24 km

After breakfast clients are transferred to Pienza. The ride today is mostly on gravel road, gentle rolling hills in the most beautiful countryside of the Orcia valley. Half way you can stop in Lucignano d'Asso, a tiny village on the L'eroica cycle route. Then you ride back to the organic farm of Pieve a Salti where you stay tonight.

Challenge: 24 km, 400m ascent, 654m descent

Day 5 Arrivederci Val d'Orcia

After breakfast a short transfer takes you down to Buonconvento where you can catch the local bus or train to the airport, unless you have booked a transfer or extra services with us.
